The team started their season at the Hilton Invitational Sept. 12th with a win over seven area teams. The 200 medley relay team, including Katie Drake, Becca Evans, Bianca Lopez and Katie Smith, broke the pool record with a winning time of 1:51.95.

Individual winners included Emma Corby, Becca Evans, Katie Smith and Lindsay Stone. Evans competed in the 200 yard individual medley (shown below), and set a pool record in the 100 yard fly achieving state qualifying times in both events. Stone won the 200 and 500 free races with state qualifying times and a pool record in 200 yard free. Corby was second in the 200 free with a state qualifying time. Smith continues to dominate at the 50 and 100 yard free races with pool records and state qualifying times.

The team competed in their first dual swim meet of the season with a 116-55 win against Greece on Sept. 17.

Pittsford S'Women finished their successful week of competition at the New Hartford Invitational against four other teams from Central and Eastern New York.

Multiple pool records and state qualifying times were achieved. Beating their own pool records, both Stone (500 free) and Smith (50 and 100 free) swam great races. Pittsford scored first and second in 50 and 100 free with Smith and Evans. Corby won the 200 individual medley and 100 fly.

Stephie Riley won the 100 back, and Sarah Minnigh won the 100 breast.

The 200 and 400 free relays are off to record-breaking seasons. The 200 free relay team of Evans, Corby, Stone and Smith continued to post state qualifying times and set pool records at Greece and New Hartford.

The 400 free relay team of Evans, Corby, Stone and Smith have captured three pool records, including Hilton, Greece and New Hartford.

Coach Green has an outstanding diving team led by Maddie Schaefer. Schaefer has met state-qualifying scores and broke a pool record at the Greece Olympia pool.

At the New Hartford Invitational divers dominated with Schafer winning first place. In second, third and fourth place were Chloe Sarkis, Sydney Sarkis and Abigail Ling.
