3 GAMES TO SEE THIS WEEK

Follow @MPN_JNotareschi for updates from the sidelines and info you won't get anywhere else.

1. Ice Hockey, Brighton/ER/HF-L vs. Geneva/Waterloo (3 p.m., Saturday at Geneva Recreation Complex):

The Barons kick off the season with a road test against the Panthers. Alan Ross begins his fifth season as head coach of Brighton/ER/HF-L, and will look to lead the Barons to their first sectional win in a couple of seasons. The Panthers are coming off a disappointing 2012-'13 season and will look to make noise in Division II.

2. Football, Aquinas vs. Monroe-Woodbury (6 p.m., Sunday at the Carrier Dome):

The Lil' Irish take aim at their first state title since 2010 when they face off with the Section 9 champions. Aquinas reached the state final thanks to a 19-6 win over Elmira on Saturday, where they used their strong ground game to roll over the Express. Monroe-Woodbury reached the state finals after easily dispatching White Plains (Section 1) 43-7 in the other state tournament semifinal.

3. Ice Hockey, Greece Thunder vs. Pittsford (7 p.m., Tuesday at Lakeshore):

The Thunder face off with the always tough Panthers in their home opener. Greece returns to the ice as they take aim at their first Section 5 title since 2011. The Panthers, who won the Class A title in 2012, will look to put a disappointing end to last season behind them as they lost their sectional opener to Penfield in overtime.
